I understand the leased equipment is of the size, design, capacity, and manufacture as recommended by recognized sports safety authorities in the sports equipment field. I understand Sports International, Inc. and/or any of the Football Camps/Academies hosted by Sports International, Inc., including but not limited to Max Lane, Sam Adams, Jason Murphy Jarvis Green, Lance Smith, Jerry Fontenot and Roman Oben (the "Program") are not the manufacturer or dealer of the equipment, and that the Program has not made or does not make any representation or warranty with respect to the quality, durability, or suitability of the leased football equipment, but is itself relying on the warranties and representations of the manufacturer. I understand that the use of the leased football equipment is not in any way a guarantee of the prevention of any injuries, damages to the user, and hereby release the Program, the Schools, Stadiums, Colleges, and Universities where the academies are held including but not limited to (University of North Texas, Pacific Lutheran University, Towson University, Benedictine University, Drew University and/or University of Massachusetts-Lowell,) (the "School"), it's officers, staff, agents, and employees, any and all Sports International Staff, any and all NFL players past and present that may be at the academy for any injury or damage which may occur to the minor child, including all risk connected therewith, whether seen or unforeseen. I further agree to save and hold harmless the School and the Program and the otherwise mentioned parties from any claim by the undersigned or the minor child using the football equipment, or the child's estate, heirs, or assigns, other than for actual negligence of the School or the Program or it's agents. There is no helmet system that can prevent concussions or eliminate the risk of serious head or neck injuries while playing football. I further agree to save and hold harmless the College and the Program and the otherwise mentioned parties from any claim by the undersigned or the minor child using the football equipment, or the child's estate, heirs, or assigns, other than for actual negligence of the College or the Program or it's agents. I specifically recognize this agreement does not constitute a waiver of any claims against manufacturer of the equipment arising out of defective manufacture or design of the sports equipment, or alleged breaches of any warranties concerning such equipment, but agrees and understands that they are agreeing to release and hold harmless the School and the Program and other mentioned parties for any such defects in manufacture or design of such equipment or alleged breaches of warranties of such equipment.
